To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of strong recommendation to consider Chris Norton speaking to your organization. Chris' story is more than remarkable. His truly inspiring message of faith, courage and determination resonates with audiences of all ages.

We recently hosted Chris at Regina Junior/Senior High School. His message was well received by students and staff alike. His candid responses to questions had the audience rushing to inquire more. That evening, he was the featured speaker at "Night of Champions" held at St. Patrick Catholic Church where over 200 people of all ages gathered to hear Chris' story. Each left with a renewed sense of faith and all marveled at Chris' progress.

I strongly encourage you to invite Chris to share his story. The perspective he brings, on so many levels, is beneficial for any organization. If I can answer any questions you may have, feel free to contact me directly.
